Pastor's Search Committee Meeting

Scripture-Deacon Johnny Johnson

Prayer-Min. Lewis Smith

Deacon Johnny Johnson made remarks concerning the search

Job descriptions were read from different members that were sent in.

Job descriptions are the expectations that our church is looking for According to our church.

We don't want to aim to high and aim to low, our prayer is that the Lord will send us who we need according to our needs.

We didn't get the return from the members concerning the job description that we had hoped, but we are going to move forward with the ones that were sent in.

We will still accept your job description if you desire to send one in by December 30th.

We will start advertising the first of the year publicly.

Listed below are some of the expectations that was sent in from 5 members.

1. Have seminary training
2. Focus on discipleship- leading people to Christ
3. Leadership, management skills and communication skills
4. Able and willing to work to help Calvary grow inside and outside the church
5. Willing to visit the sick, shut in, and jail.
6. Honest, accountable, open, and transparent
7. Strong knowledge of God's word and full of the Holy Spirit
8. Should be a tither, treat all members the same, have no respecter of person.
9. Focus on being the pastor and leader. Allow all ministries and auxiliaries do their job but be available if needed.
